HUDSON FAMILY.

I am sending a copy of a letter verbatim from my great-grandfather's Bible. He made a trip in 1813 to Louisa County, Va., especially (as he says in his Bible) to find out concerning the genealogy of his mother's family—she was named Rebecca and was the daughter of Charles Hudson and his wife Susan Patrick, and is the Charles mentioned in Sarah Thompson's letter as son of John Hudson and Elizabeth Harris. Now I am satisfied that the Harris Hudson & Patricks who are mentioned in Wm. & Mary Quarterly of Hanover Records, July, 1912, page 49-53, are the same line—in 1734 John Hudson is dead, &c—but you see Charles, according to Sarah Thompson's letter is living in Prince Edward in 1776. Can you not now get me record of some Revolutionary service, if he settled there in 1776—he lived either in Hanover or Louisa the latter being taken from Hanover.

MRS. W. T.

"Memoranda of Mrs. Sarah Thompson age 64 year respecting her family:

"My paternal Grandfather was named John Hudson, he had a brother Charles. He was an Englishman and lived and died in the County of Hanover State of Virginia. John Hudson married Elizabeth Harris and they had the following children: George, Christopher, John, William, Charles, David, Cuthbert & Thomas. My fathers name was Charles who settled in Prince Edward in the year 1776. About the year 1770 I visited my Grand Mother who lived about 7 miles from Hanover Town or Page's Ware House at it was more commonly called.

My Uncle George Hudson was then an Inspector of Tobacco at that Ware House. He had no son & only 2 daughters viz Elizabeth and Polly, the latter married a Mr. Watkins, the former a Mr. Clay my grandfather John Hudson had only one brother Charles whose family I know nothing of except that a daughter of his named Sarah who married a Colonel Richard Holland of Prince Edward Co., This great Uncle Charles was a merchant and said to be wealthy. My grandfather died suddenly and intestate, by which means, my Uncle George being the eldest son, held all the lands and there by became much wealthier than the rest of the family

SLAUGHTER—ADDENDA.

I am interested in the Slaughter Genealogy which appeared in the last number of the "Virginia Magazine," and I take the liberty of sending you the following data which may be of interest to you in this connection:—

1. Gabriel Slaughter (afterwards Governor of Kentucky) married Sarah Hord. (See a record of this marriage in "Virginia County Records" by Crozier Vol ix—page 12). Sarah (Hord) Slaughter was daughter of John^s (William^s, John¹) of "Shady Grove" Caroline County, Va. John¹ Hord father of Sarah (Hord) Slaughter was Lieutenant 4th Continental Dragoons January 20, 1777—Heitman's "Register"). There is a deed in Prince William County, Sep-27, 1822 from "John H. Slaughter to Thomas Hord and Robert Hord" mentioning land bequeathed to John H. Slaughter by Hawkins Hord brother of Sarah (Hord) Slaughter. John H. Slaughter was son of Sarah (Hord) Slaughter. (See this deed in Prince William County, Book 8—page 519).

2. Frances Hord married a Mr. Slaughter, and you will find my authority for this statement in the "History of St. Mark's Parish, Culpeper" (revised & enlarged edition by Green) Part II, page 50. On the same page you will find an abstract of the will of James^s Hord (Thomas^s, John¹) dated December 14, 1802, father of Frances (Hord) Slaughter.

LETTER FROM GENERAL M. R. PATRICK U. S. A. TO REV. M. D. HOGE, 1866

[Masena R. Patrick was born in Jefferson O. N. Y. in 1811, graduated at West Point and served with distinction in the Mexican War. He resigned from the army in 1850; but entered the United States service at the beginning of the Civil War, became brigadier-general of volunteers, and was, after Lee's surrender, provost-martial general of the Department of Virginia. He resigned in June 1865. His conduct during the brief but most critical period during which he was stationed in Richmond as provost-martial-general, won him many friends here. We are indebted to Mr. Charles Pondexter for permission to copy the letter, which shows a spirit very unusual at the time]

Geneva, 15 Feb'y 1866

Dear Doctor,

Your very kind & most acceptable letter of 5-9 Dec. reached me in due season & I have only delayed acknowledging it, because I hoped ere this, the political horizon would be clearer. Still progress is made in the right direction, & the spirit so strongly evinced by the President, to maintain his integrity, holding firmly his position against all the assaults of Radicals, gives assurance to the Conservative element in the North, which is becoming stronger every day. I have great hope that the reign of the Radicals is near its close & that Peace, such a peace as springs only from the principles of the Gospel of Christ, is very soon to be inaugurated throughout all our land.

There appears to be a feeling in all our communities that for a few years past in the violence & heat of political & sectional strife, the fundamental principles of religion even, have been deserted by the entire membership of many of the churches, or by such a majority as to make it unsafe for the few not carried away by the storm, to express their opinions openly; and that spiritual desolation has been the legitimate result. Vice, Intemperance, Breach of Trust, utter disregard of plighted faith and a general breaking down of all the time-honored safeguards of public morals & virtue appear to be the most striking characteristics of the masses as viewed from almost any stand-point in the years 1861-64 & 65.

It is only within a few weeks past that I have seen a disposition, among the people with whom I am brought in contact to enter upon this work of selfexamination, & to take an observation as to our present position. In this place, Geneva, with a population of say 6,000, considerable wealth, refinement, literary taste & social enjoyment, without much active business, I was looked upon with distrust & aversion by all the citizens, excepting the very few who knew me well and had independence enough to think for themselves.

Circumstances have made it necessary for me to express myself decidedly.—At first, & in our religious assemblies there would be some rejoinder, showing the animus.

For weeks, however, all this has ceased and in the gatherings, daily, of the active members of all the Evangelical churches, I have heard none of the stereotyped, uncharitable allusions, to the South, which were but a short time ago, a great staple.

On the Sabbath evening preceding the week of prayer (7 Jan'y) I took the occasion to say, that if we expected God's blessing while our hearts were full of hatred and all uncharitableness, we might more than doubt the fact of our discipleship.

You can imagine what I would say under such circumstances as a Christian man, to which I added, that my right to speak as I did, none could question, for it had been caused by years of toil & danger in the service of our whole country. It had more effect than I then knew because they had begun to think they might not be altogether without sin themselves.

Since that time we have had a Union meeting for prayer, daily, morning & evening—with frequent gatherings in the respective churches.

Without excitement many converts have been gathered in, mostly of the young. The children and youth of the Sabbath Schools have shared largely in this precious ingathering. I meet 3 or 4 times in the week a band of young disciples, of both sexes, numbering from 70 to 80 to counsel & instruct them; to teach them how to pray and how to work for Christ. What a change in the character of my duties—training young recruits for the service of the Prince of Peace. Yesterday was observed in our churches as a day of fasting, humiliation & prayer for the purification of the church, the sanctification of God's people & the conversion of sinners.

At 4 P. M. I met 164 young converts. It was good to be there, and though I cannot but tremble at the responsibilities of the position, yet I feel that Providence has placed me there, after having given me such training as does not usually fall to the lot of clergymen, to whom such service is usually assigned. God grant that the evening of my life may be spent in promoting Peace on Earth & Good Will among men—its morning & meridian were certainly passed in the turmoil of life—the Battle & the Storm.

But I find myself running into matters personal—though such as interest you.

You ask if I still fancy at times that I would like to live in the South? If I were not almost 55 years of age I should go South where I have spent some of the happiest years of my life; but with my family in its present condition, & the South in its present condition it would be unwise to make the change.

Yet I often feel & especially since the receipt of your letter, that I would dearly love to spend some weeks in your church, in somewhat such manner as I am spending my time here—with little other business than what I find in the Vineyard of the Master. I trust that the religious interest in your church continues, & increases. May the Spirit of the Lord be & abide with you.

I was glad to notice, not long since, the liberality of a New York gentleman to Dr. Read's church, and hope that a sufficient fund may be raised for the rebuilding of his church.

Please remember me to him and to Dr. Moore. I think of many others in Richmond with whom my relations, tho' brief, can never be forgotten. Perhaps when my affairs are in such condition that I can leave them, I may revisit Richmond & some other places in Virginia of deep interest to me. You were kind enough to allude to the feeling towards me in your city. I do not affect to conceal the fact, that the malignity of the Radicals is more than counterbalanced by the respect shown to me whenever I am known in the South, for I cannot doubt the feeling if exhibited now when I am not only without power but in Coventry.

I shall always be glad to hear from you, and to know of the welfare of your church, as of the church generally in Virginia. I note what you say of church matters generally & agree with your views as to re-union for the present.

Commend me to Mrs. Hoge & believe me,

Sincerely yours,

M. R. PATRICK.

GOODWYN—MITCHELL—RAINES, Wanted the parents of Amy Goodwyn, born Aug. 31, 1732; died Jan. 14, 1773; married 1st Thomas Mitchell, of Sussex Co., Va.; and second Oct. 5, 1762, in Sussex Co., John Raines, of Prince George and Sussex Co.'s, Va., born July 5, 1726; and died after 1780.

By her first marriage, she was the mother of Henry and Richard Mitchell, and perhaps others; by her second marriage, she was the mother of Robert, Caldwellader, Thomas and Amy Goodwyn Raines, and two other children that died in infancy.

Amy Goodwyn Raines, was born Jan. 14, 1773 in Virginia, either Sussex or Prince George Co.; and died Oct. 7, 1840, in Madison Co., Ala., He mother, Amy (Goodwyn) Mitchell Raines, died at her birth and she was reared in the home of her mothers brother, a Peterson Goodwyn, of Petersburg, Va., from whoes home sha was married, on Apr. 6, 1790, to Robert Stewart, who was born in Scotland, April 4, 1756; and died in Madison Co., Ala., Nov. 17, 1840; (He married first in Scotland, name of wife unknown, but she was a sister of the wife of Thomas Beard, of Petersburg.) The said Robert Stewart, was a Tobacconist, and his home in Petersburg, was located on High St., About the year 1815, he removed from Petersburg to Augusta, Ga., and later from there to Madison Co., Ala., (I have a complete line of their descendants.)

Now the Peterson Goodwyn, with whom Amy Goodwyn Raines, made her home, had the following children, Edward, Eppes, Eliza, Lucy Ann and Patsy, of these Eliza married Thomas Whitworth, These facts I have gained from some old family papers, and from the older members of the family, and in every branch of the family the tradition is that Amy Goodwyn Raines, was a neice of Peterson Goodwyn, and reared as a member of his family.

The children of Robert Stewart and Amy Goodwyn Raines, were Thomas Raines, Harriet, Mary Goodwyn, Peterson Goodwyn, Ellen Gordon, Jane Osborn, Emily, and Elizabeth Stewart, only the three youngest of these lived to maturity.

Robert Stewart, had a brother who came to America prior to his own coming, this brother was Archibald Stewart, and he located in Baltimore, Md., he had among other children, a son James, who in 1816, visited his uncle Robert Stewart's family at Augusta, Ga., and it is said fell in love with his cousin, Jane Osborn Stewart.

I hope some one can give me the ancestry of Amy Goodwyn, 1732-1733, of her first husband Thomas Mitchell, and her second husband John Raines, 1726-17—; I should also like to know something of Archibald Stewart, of Baltimore, Md., and his descendants.

Sincerely

STELLA PICKETT HARDY
